Notice that the name of Berlin is of the old Polish-Polabian origin (See appendix).

Played out northwest of Berlin in the countryside still marked with ancient Polish-Polabian names in the common language of Polish and Elbe River Slavs. “Polabian” literally means “living on the Elbe (Laba) River.”